

REPUBLIC OF VANUATU

CHAPTER 162

THE DISCONTINUANCE OF IRREGULAR INDUSTRIAL ACTION
OR INDUSTRIAL ACTION ORDER No.40 OF 1993

An Order to discontinue the irregular industrial action or industrial action taken by members of registered Trade Unions apart from the Vanuatu Public Service Association.

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by Section 34 of the Trade Disputes Act [CAP. 162], I, CHARLIE NAKO, Minister of Home Affairs and Decentralization hereby make the following Order:-

DISCONTINUANCE OF IRREGULAR INDUSTRIAL ACTION OR INDUSTRIAL ACTION

1. No person or member of a class of persons specified in Section 2 of this Order shall during the period for which this Order remains in force -
 - (a) call, organise, procure or finance a strike, or any irregular industrial action, or threaten to do so;
 - (b) institute, carry on, organise, procure or finance a lock-out or threaten to do so.

APPLICATION OF THE ORDER

2. (1) Section 1 of this Order shall apply to all persons who are members, whether financial or not, of a registered Trade Union registered in accordance with the Trade Unions Act [CAP. 161] and who are currently participating in an irregular industrial action or industrial action.
- (2) Every member, whether financial or not, of a registered Trade Union is bound by this Order.

OFFENCE

3. Any person who acts in contravention of the provisions of this Order or fails to comply with any directions contained herein shall be guilty of an offence:

Provided that no prosecution in respect of such offence shall be instituted except, by, or at the instance of, or with the Written Consent of the Attorney General.

COMMENCEMENT

4. This Order shall come into force on the date of signature and shall remain in force until the 30th day of January, 1994 or unless it is earlier revoked.

MADE at PORT VILA this 6th day of December, 1993.

CHARLIE NAKO
Minister of Home Affairs and Decentralization
