SCHEDULE
LUNAR POKER GAMING RULES

- 5.8 Once the player's ante has been paid out according to the selected and displayed odds outlined in rule 5.6, the player's cards are collected and the round of play is then over for that player.
- 5.9 If the player has placed a super bet wager as described in rule 5.1(b) and is dealt any of the super combinations in their initial five card hand as outlined in the pay table below, the player's super wager will be paid out at the following described odds:

Same Coloured Straight	150:1
Full House	100:1
Flush	50:1

The Casino Operator may elect to adjust the odds in the SUPER Side Bet Pat Table outlined above where the combination of Three of a Kind may pay 7:1 and/or the combination of Ace-King-Queen may pay 5:1.

- 5.10 The settlement of winning super wagers will take place in clockwise order and prior to the dealer acting on the option selected by each player in turn.

The Dealer will wait for all other players to make a decision on whether to play, fold or draw and announce "all decisions are locked in" prior to verifying and settling the winning super wagers. Once the dealer has made this announcement, the players cannot change their decisions.

As each player's winning super wager is verified and settled, the cards are then passed back to the player where the player then has the opportunity to fold, play or draw as described in rule 5.2.

- 5.11 If the player's winning super combination is a Royal Flush or Straight Flush these hands constitute a Same Coloured Straight, either combination also qualifies for the instant cash payout feature as described in rule 5.6.

In this case, the player's ante will be paid out at the selected instant cash payout odds in rule 5.6 and if a super bet has been placed, that bet will be paid out at the relevant super odds, according to the pay tables outlined in rule 5.9 and with either or both bets also subject to rule 5.12. The round of play will then be over for that player that has received the Royal flush or Straight flush, and their cards will be collected by the dealer.

- 5.12 The payout odds on bet wagers, ante wagers and super wagers shall be subject to any maximum payout limit set by the casino operator. The amount of such limit will be selected and displayed at the gaming table by the Casino Operator.
- 5.13 Except as permitted by these rules, once the dealer has called "No more bets" no player shall:

- (b) each of the decks shall then be loaded into the automatic shuffler and shuffled separately by it; and
- (c) the cutting card shall be used in accordance with approved procedures.

7 Shuffle and Cut of Cards

7.1 The cards shall be shuffled so that they are randomly intermixed within the deck:

- (a) immediately before the start of play; and
- (b) at the end of each round; and
- (c) at the recommencement of play following any period during which the table has been vacant; and
- (d) at the direction of a game supervisor or casino supervisor where there is reason to suspect that the randomness of the shuffle has been compromised; and
- (e) if any card has been exposed prior to the cards entering the shoe; and at the direction of a game supervisor or casino supervisor, at his or her discretion.

7.2 Where a card shoe is used, after the cards have been shuffled a casino employee shall cut the cards once, place them on the cutting card and then place all of the cards in the shoe for the commencement of play. No player ever cuts the cards.

7.3 The dealer may at any time check and verify that the deck of cards or any of the decks, as the case may be, contains the correct number of cards, namely 52.

SCHEDULE
LUNAR POKER GAMING RULES

7.4 The casino operator may, after any round of play, direct that the cards be replaced, in which event the new cards shall be checked, shuffled and cut in accordance with sections 6 and 7.

8 Dealing the Cards

8.1 Immediately before the start of each round of play, and after all ante wagers and super wagers (if applicable) have been made, the dealer shall:

- (a) Call "No more bets"; and then
- (b) Starting on his/her left and continuing clockwise around the table, deal the cards.

8.2 All cards shall be dealt face down except for the dealer's last card, which (subject to rule 8.4) shall be dealt face up.

8.3 When a card shoe is used the cards shall be dealt as follows:

- (a) one card to each wagering area containing an ante wager and then 1 card to the dealer; followed by
- (b) a further card to each such wagering area and the dealer, and so on until every player and the dealer have 5 cards each.

8.4 When an automatic shuffler is used the cards shall be dealt as follows:

- (a) 5 cards at a time to each wagering area containing an ante wager; followed by
- (b) 5 cards to the dealer.

The dealer's bottom card shall then be turned over to face up.

8.5 If after the initial deal described in rules 8.1-8.4, a player wishes to exchange 2-5 cards; after paying the draw fee of an amount equivalent to their ante wager, the player will place their unwanted cards face down beside their options area. The dealer will then:

SCHEDULE
LUNAR POKER GAMING RULES

- (a) remove the draw fee from the options area as payment for the card exchange;
- (b) spread the player's unwanted cards for exchange to verify the amount;
- (c) Remove and replace the player's unwanted cards with the same amount of cards from the deck in play.

The player will then add the replacement cards to their hand.

8.6 If after the initial deal described in rules 8.1-8.4, a player wishes to buy a 6th card; once the player pays the draw fee an amount equivalent to their ante wager, the dealer will then:

- (a) remove the draw fee from the options area as payment for buying the 6th Card;
- (b) deal the player a 6th card beside their option area

The player will then add the 6th card to their initial 5 card hand.

8.7 Any additional cards required by players electing to exercise either of the draw options as described in rules 8.5 and 8.6, will be dealt from a card shoe using the remaining cards in the deck of play after the initial deal is complete. This will be the case regardless of whether a card shoe or an automated shuffler was used to complete the initial deal as described in rules 8.1-8.4.

9 Betting Round

9.1 After the initial 5 cards have been dealt to each player, the players will pick up their cards and decide whether to fold, draw as described in rules 8.5 and 8.6 or play against the dealer by making a bet wager double to that of their ante wager.

9.2 At the same time, players who have placed a super wager must declare any winning super combination in their hand to the dealer. If the player does not declare a winning super combination, the dealer will go ahead and collect the losing super wager. Players must also declare any instant cash payout combinations after evaluating their initial 5 cards.

- 9.3 If a player does declare a winning super or instant cash payout combination to the dealer, they will be asked to lay their cards face down in their bet area.

The dealer will not verify and pay any winning super or instant cash payout hands until all other players have clearly made a decision to play, fold or draw according to rules 9.4, 9.5 and 9.6.

The dealer will then verify and pay the winning super combinations in clockwise order prior to that player folding, exchanging cards, buying a 6th card or placing their bet wager to play against the dealer. At this point, any instant cash payout combinations will be settled in accordance with rule 5.6.

- 9.4 A player who decides to fold shall place his/her cards face down on the table. The dealer shall then, in relation to each player who has folded:

- (a) collect the ante wager and the player's cards;
- (b) individually spread out the cards, face down, and count them; and
- (c) place the cards in the discard rack.

- 9.5 The remaining players in the game then have the option to play against the dealer by placing a bet wager which will be double in value to that of their ante wager, or before making that decision, the players can elect to participate in the draw option.

- 9.6 If any of the remaining players elect to participate in the draw option, the players may choose to exchange 2-5 cards from their hand or buy a 6th card using the next card(s) from the deck in play as described in rules 8.5 and 8.6.

- 9.7 Once all remaining players have clearly made a decision to play or draw, and all winning super or instant cash payout combinations have been settled in accordance to rules 5.6 and 5.9, the dealer will act on each box in a clockwise order from the dealer's left to right.

SCHEDULE
LUNAR POKER GAMING RULES

- 9.8 The Casino Operator may allow the dealer to act on the players' options in a clockwise order as each player makes their decision to draw or play and prior to subsequent boxes making their decisions to draw or play.
- 9.9 Once the players participating in the draw option have received their exchanged cards or 6th card from the dealer, they will then re-evaluate their hand and decide to fold by placing their cards face down on the layout, or play against the dealer by placing a bet wager in value of double their ante wager.
- 9.10 When the players remaining in the game have made their bet wagers, the players shall place their cards face down on the layout in their designated bet area underneath their bet wager. After announcing "no more bets", the dealer shall then turn all the remaining cards in the dealer's hand face up and declare the highest poker value of the hand.
- 9.11 The casino operator may, at its discretion, direct where players place their cards on the layout.
- 9.12 When handling the cards, players shall at all times ensure that the cards remain on or above the area of the table. The cards must not be removed from the table.
- 9.13 Except as expressly permitted by these rules, players may not exchange cards, nor exchange, communicate, nor cause to be exchanged or communicated any information regarding their respective hands to other players.
- 9.14 At any time while a game is in progress the casino operator may direct that:
- (a) there be silence while a hand is in progress;
 - (b) Players suspected of collusion not play at the same table.

10 Final Settlement

- 10.1 If the dealer's hand does not have a poker value of an ace and king or higher, the dealer shall announce "No hand" or "Dealer does not qualify"

SCHEDULE
LUNAR POKER GAMING RULES

and then, the dealer will ask the remaining players “Does anyone want to force dealer to try to qualify”

- 10.2 For those players who do not wish to participate in the force dealer to try to qualify option, the dealer will;
- (a) pay the respective ante wagers in accordance with rule 5.5; and
 - (b) spread each hand face down to ensure there are 5 or 6 cards where applicable; and
 - (c) collect the cards of those players and place them in the discard rack; and
 - (d) all bet wagers belonging to these players shall then be returned to each respective player.
- 10.3 For those players who do wish to participate in the force dealer to try to qualify option, their ante wagers will not be paid and each player will need to pay a fee equivalent to that of their ante wager. Each fee will be placed in the player’s respective options fee area and collected by the dealer.
- 10.4 The dealer will then remove the card of highest value from the dealer’s hand and replace this card with the next card from the deck in play, creating a second chance for the dealer to qualify. This process can only take place once in each round of play. If the dealer still fails to qualify with Ace and King or higher, all ante and bet wagers will be considered a stand-off and returned to the players.
- 10.5 Regardless of the force dealer to qualify option being exercised by the players or not, if the dealer’s hand subsequently has a poker value of ace and king or higher, the dealer shall, starting on their right, turn the cards of the players remaining in the game face up, and:
- (a) arrange each player’s hand so that the highest poker value may easily be read;
 - (b) compare the player’s hand with that of the dealer; and

SCHEDULE
LUNAR POKER GAMING RULES

- (c) announce the value of the player's hand and whether it wins or loses.

10.6 A player's hand shall:

- (a) win if it has a higher poker value than that of the dealer's hand;
- (b) lose if it has a lower poker value than that of the dealer's hand;
- (c) constitute a stand-off if it has a poker value equal to that of the dealer's hand.

10.7 If a player's hand loses the dealer shall:

- (a) collect the ante and the bet wagers on the hand; and
- (b) collect and count the player's cards by individually spreading out the cards, face down, and counting them; before placing the cards in the discard rack.

10.8 If a player's hand wins the dealer shall:

- (a) pay the bet wager on the hand in accordance with rules 5.5 and 5.12;
- (b) collect and count the player's cards by individually spreading out the cards, face down, and counting them; before placing the cards in the discard rack;
- (c) return the ante wager to the player.

10.9 If a winning player's hand contains a second poker combination where at least one card in the second combination is not included in the winning combination, the dealer shall:

- (a) after paying the bet wager for the winning combination, reorganise the player's cards to display the second poker combination; and

- (b) pay the bet wager for second combination as per the pay table outlined in rule 5.5 and in accordance with rule 5.12;
- (c) collect and count the player's cards as by individually spreading out the cards, face down, and counting them; before placing the cards in the discard rack.

10.10 Subject to rule 10.2, if a player's hand constitutes a stand-off the dealer shall collect and count the player's cards by individually spreading out the cards, face down, and counting them; before placing the cards in the discard rack.

11 Irregularities

- 11.1 If a player fails to comply with rules 9.12 and 9.13 the casino operator may declare the player's hand void, in which event any ante, bet and jackpot wagers made by that player shall be void.
- 11.2 Except as specified elsewhere in these rules, if an incorrect number of cards is dealt to any player or to the dealer this shall constitute a misdeal.
- 11.3 Subject to rules 11.4 and 11.5, if an exposed card is dealt this shall not constitute a misdeal. The dealer shall turn the card over and continue dealing.
- 11.4 If a card is exposed in error to the dealer's hand, the card shall be left exposed as the dealer's face up card and the dealer's fifth card shall be dealt face down, and, where the cards are dealt from an automatic shuffler, shall not be turned over as provided in rule 8.4.
- 11.5 If more than one card is exposed in error during the dealing of the cards this shall constitute a misdeal.
- 11.6 If a player exposes one or more cards in his/her hand, this shall not constitute a misdeal, subject to rule 11.1.
- 11.7 Subject to rule 11.4 and notwithstanding rule 11.5, if the dealer exposes one or more cards in his/her hand in error before all of the players have made a decision in relation to their bet wagers, the players will be given the option to make a bet wager or to fold.

SCHEDULE
LUNAR POKER GAMING RULES

- 11.8 Subject to rule 11.9, if, before all cards are dealt, it is discovered that cards have been dealt to a wagering area without an ante wager, the round of play shall be declared a misdeal.
- 11.9 If it is discovered that a complete hand has been dealt to a wagering area without an ante wager, the cards dealt to that wagering area shall be counted and placed in the discard rack and the game shall then continue.
- 11.10 If it is discovered that the deck in use at the table does not contain 52 cards, the round shall constitute a misdeal and be void.
- 11.11 Subject to these rules, in the event of a misdeal all wagers affected by the misdeal, shall be void. In the event of the entire round being void the hands shall be re-dealt after the players have had an opportunity to change their ante and super wager.
- 11.12 If a player makes a wager and is dealt a complete hand but is not present at the table to make a decision on that hand, the player shall be deemed to have folded and all wagers shall be forfeited.
- 11.13 If the dealer collects a player's cards before the player has decided whether to make a bet wager or to fold, the player's hand shall be reconstructed where possible but otherwise shall be void.
- 11.14 Notwithstanding rule 11.10, when a player has laid his/her cards down on the table subsequent to the dealing of a complete hand, and those cards have been placed on the discard pile, that player's hand may be reconstructed providing those cards are the top five on the discard pile. The player shall otherwise be deemed to have folded pursuant to rule 9.4
- 11.15 If a player buys a 6th card or exchanges cards and has failed to declare an instant cash payout hand prior to receiving the 6th card or the exchanged cards, provided that the player has not viewed that 6th card or the exchanged cards and no further cards have been dealt to subsequent boxes, the casino operator may elect to make payment on the instant cash payout hand. In this case, the 6th card or the exchanged cards in question will be used by the dealer as the next card(s) in play if required.

If the player has viewed their 6th card or exchanged cards, or if additional cards have been bought or exchanged in subsequent boxes, then that player no longer qualifies for the instant cash payout feature payment.

SCHEDULE
LUNAR POKER GAMING RULES

11.16 If a player buys a 6th card or exchanges cards and has failed to declare a super combination prior to receiving the 6th card or the exchanged cards, provided that the player has not viewed that 6th card or the exchanged cards and no further cards have been dealt to subsequent boxes, the casino operator may elect to make payment on the super combination.

If the player has viewed their 6th card or exchanged cards, or if additional cards have already been bought or exchanged in subsequent boxes, then that player no longer qualifies for the super combination payment.

11.17 If there are insufficient cards to complete a hand, the dealer will manually shuffle the cards from the discard rack and deal those remaining cards as required.

11.18 If any provisions are not covered by the rules, the Operations Manager (or above) decision is final.
